SAVE THE DATE: OCTOBER 12 - MQSC FABRIC SALE & BOUTIQUE

At the Veterans Building Auditorium

Saturday October 12, is the MQSC Fabric Sale and Boutique. This is the major fundraiser for our guild. Fabric and quilting supplies (books, patterns, notions, UFOs) are sold at incredibly ridiculous reduced prices. The Boutique is a means for members to sell their handmade items (quilts, quilt tops, table runners, cards, aprons, dolls, etc.). There will also be Raffle Baskets and a Bake Sale.

How you can help with the event:

- 1) Volunteer to help to set up, during and/or take down of the event
- 2) Do some stash purging and donate fabric and supplies.
- 3) Sell some of your handmade items. You set the selling price and keep 80%.

4) Donate handmade items to be sold and MQSC keeps 100% of the selling price.

5) Make a baked good or two for the bake sale.

We need your participation in multiple ways to make this a successful event.

Meet Maureen Bray!

I have been asked by Madam President for a short paragraph about myself so here goes.After being my mother's primary caregiver for the last eighteen years of her life, I found myself at loose ends. One day I decided to go to the Windsor Senior Center to see what activities were available. There was a group of quilters in the back room so I quietly peeked in to ask where I could take a class to learn about quilting. To say they welcomed me with open arms is an understatement. Within a few weeks, I had learned the basics. That was in February of 2020. Shortly thereafter the world went crazy and everything shut down due to Covid 19! For two and a half years I tried to teach myself by watching tutorials on the internet. I cannot quilt. I can make quilt tops and hand them off to someone else to quilt. By the way, I am computer illiterate. I don't know how to do anything with pictures. I have problems with Zoom meetings. I simply love to sew and make beautiful things.

There you have a short paragraph about me!
