PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hear ye! Hear ye! It is that time of the year that we start the election process for the 2017 - 2018 Moonlight Quilter's year. So I bet you are wondering how the elections happen. I am so happy you asked! We start by forming a nominations committee. This is a group of members that survey the membership to see who is interested in which position. The committee then creates a list of those that want to fill a position so that we can vote on the list/ positions at the June business meeting. The nomination committee requires two board members and three general members. The nomination process needs to be completed by the business meeting in May. I have had no volunteers yet and we are in desperate need to fill the nomination committee positions. If you are interested in serving on this short term committee, please let me know right away.

This leads me to the second part of my message - filling the board positions. Our guild will continue only if we fill the board positions. There are a lot of opportunities to get involved and help make our guild succeed. If you are curious about what positions are elected, visit the MQSC website (www.MQSC.org) and click on the membership page. At the bottom of the page you will see a link to the board positions and another link to the position descriptions. I encourage each of you to consider taking on a task to make sure our guild can continue to provide the experiences you have had. You can always let me know and I will pass it on to the committee. Thanks!

Katina Repp, President

WINE COUNTRY QUILT SHOW - JUNE 3&4

Just one more month 'til we get to have a great time together at our Quilt Show. It is always wonderful and exciting to get to spend so much time with our friends, and to make new friends too. Thank you all for volunteering and participating in any way you can. It takes a whole guild and fellow guilds too, to make a Quilt Show.
It is now time to get those quilts and other items finished for take in on Thursday the 1st of June. There is still time to sign up to volunteer and help out. We have jobs on all days from Thursday evening through Sunday evening. Two 2-hour shifts earns you free entry to the show, and volunteering gets you lunch at our volunteer pot luck.
Thank you to our wonderful committee members who have been working for the past year to prepare for the show. You are all terrific and dedicated - Thank You, Gina S-C Quilt Show Chair

VOLUNTEER!

Volunteers are still needed for your quilt show, so if you haven't signed up yet, now's the time to get the spot and time slot you want. We have sitting jobs like admissions, door monitor/guard and volunteer sign in. Standing jobs such as white glove, floaters and take down. Or if you can help Friday morning, we need people to help collect the equipment from the storage shed and assist with set up and quilt hanging.
Most shifts are approximately 2 - 2 1/2 hours, lunch is provided all three days and if you're willing to work two shifts, you'll get in the show for free. Your shifts don't need to be consecutive or even on the same days, we're just happy to have your help whenever we can.
Please contact our Volunteer Chair people, either Alys Hay or Dena Harding if you have questions or want to sign up.
Thank you for your time!
Sincerely,
Alys Hay - ahayesq@aol.com
Dena Harding - gdharding@comcast.net

IMPORTANT DATES AND TIMES

THURSDAY JUNE 1: QUILT DROP-OFF at Vet's: 6 -7 pm

Friday JUNE 2: SHOW SET UP @10 am

Saturday JUNE 3: SHOW HOURS 10 am to 5 pm VOLUNTEERS 9:30-10 am depending on your job

Sunday JUNE 4: SHOW HOURS 10 am to 4 pm

SUNDAY JUNE 4: PICK UP QUILTS at 5 pm (come before 5:45 pm as we need to be out of the building by 6 pm!)

VICE PRESIDENT'S NOTES

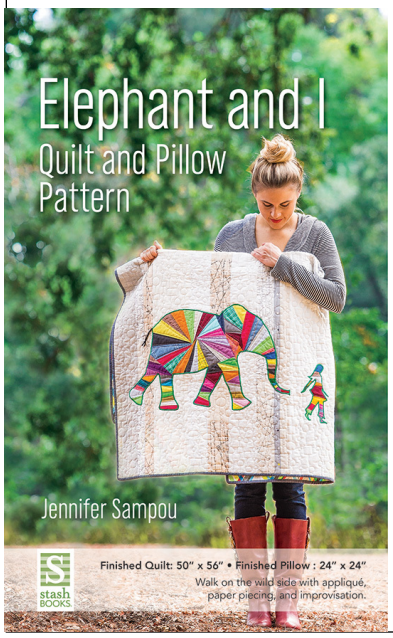
We have seen the sun a bit so spring must be finally here! I am so glad that during all the spring rain so many of you completed your UFO projects. Thanks for sharing them at our last meeting! We held a drawing and two of our members won a Moda charm pack!! With that said, we did collect $35.00 in donations to our guild from members who want to keep their UFO's a bit longer!! Maybe next year!
On another note don't forget to work on the VP challenge which is to use the black on white fat quarter you signed out in a quilt or project of your choice. This project will be shared at the August meeting.
Please see the membership table for a "secret handout" from me. I am working on a surprise project for our President and I can use your help!! We won't let her take a handout! These will be on the table at the next business meeting in May! Thanks in advance for taking one!
I look forward to our quilt show in June and want to thank all those who are working so hard to put this event on. Let's all make sure we sign up to do our part!
Debbie Cesaretti, MSQC VP

TREASURER'S ACCOUNTING

We may be real tired of the rain, but it sure does make for good quilting weather. I really need that to finish getting my quilts ready for the quilt show. How about you?
Our coffers are in the black to the tune of $7,227.11. Big bills are just around the corner so some of this (okay, a lot) is earmarked for those payments.
Happy Quilting!
Cindy Chadwick, Treasurer

PS: UPDATE FROM THE FABRIC SALE: In round numbers - $2500! WOW! THANK YOU, LLINE AND DEB!

PROGRAMS AND WORKSHOPS



Moonlight Quilters of Sonoma County is happy to welcome Jennifer Sampou for our May Program Meeting and Workshop. She will speak to us on Wednesday, May 17 at 7pm about her journey as an artist, designer, and quilter. Then, on Saturday May 20, Jennifer will lead a workshop to make her pattern "Elephant and I."
The workshop will be from 10-4 at Village Sewing Center. You can read more about Jennifer and her quilting artistry at www.jennifersampou.com
Please see or contact Barbara Freiday if you would like to participate in the Saturday workshop.

FAT QUARTER FRENZY

OK, so maybe not exactly a “frenzy”, but a nice way to have a chance at a focused theme group of fabrics! You bring in one or more fat quarters (can be a whole 1/2 yard piece) and put your name on a ticket for each 1/4 yard. Really easy, right? May’s theme is SPORTS - any and all! And to give you a heads up, June’s theme will be Super Heroes/Heroines, Disney and Movies.
Donna Cambra and Lillian Wells, coordinators

MEDALLIONS

ROUND 4 Medallions are due on Wednesday, May 3rd and will be passed on to Round 5 participants at the end of that meeting. If you are unable to attend the May 3rd meeting or return the Medallion round for another reason, please contact Karen Lavender (584-5053) or Patti Bassignani (823-8108) so we can schedule a time to meet or drop off the medallion.
Thank you for taking part in making this year's Medallion program a wonderful experience!
Karen and Patti, coordinators

FRIENDSHIP BLOCKS

We have never been so busy at Friendship Block as we were on April 5th. WOW!! So many blocks came in AND so many blocks went out. We look forward to seeing many of those blocks returned at our May meeting. It was great to see a lot of blocks go out for our friend Jeanne Baron. She will be moving to Texas so it would be wonderful if they can be returned soon. Stop by and see us. We have some new blocks in and promise of new blocks to come! Keep us busy, we love it.
Margaret Garretson and Jeanne Nelson, coordinators

CAT AND DOG CUDDLES

Thanks to all our April donors of a fine stack of good looking cat cuddles: Dena Harding, Carole Simkins, Marilyn Lira, Cecile Clabaugh, Janet Clark, Ruth Aquistapace, and Saraj Cory. Saraj is a first time donor to the program. Welcome!

Thank you to the guild for giving approval to Forgotten Felines of Sonoma County to use some of the cuddles in their fund raising efforts. They continue to make sure that the kitties in the shelter are well cared for and comfy on their cuddles, but in addition, some of the cuddles will be used to raise funds for food, litter, medicine, and those other things that are important to keep the kitties healthy and happy while awaiting their forever homes.
As usual, we will have our supplies of fabric and batting at the May meeting and we would love for you to take some home with you and bring it back as completed cuddles. Cuddles are a great way to practice your piecing and quilting, or to use up leftovers and orphan blocks.
As a reminder, cat cuddles should be 17” x 25”. Dog cuddles should be dog-sized (and dogs come in all sizes).

Thank you again for your support of this program.
Julie Neff and Janske Silva, Cat and Dog Cuddles

STAR QUILTER

I was lucky to sleep under a Sunbonnet Sue and an appliqued animal quilt made by my grandmother. She and my mother made all my school dresses and, like most girls at the time, I took Home Economics and then I made most of my clothes including bell bottoms...remember them! At 16, I made the uniforms for 6 Song Girls at the High School...they were 2 pieces,,,.satin lined wool skirts with fitted jackets and bound buttonholes...with no patterns - I think I made $25 each. Now I only do an occasional Halloween costume or an apron. I took a beginning quilting class in 2000 and attended my 1st quilt show here at the Vet's building. The 1st quilt book I bought was Freddy Moran's Houses and decided to make a house quilt for my parent's 50th anniversary which is still hanging in their kitchen - and houses are still my favorite block. BLOCK of the MONTH

Thanks to all of you who participate in the Block of the Month program. We had 23 Oklahoma Twister blocks turned in! As you can see in the picture, those bright batiks looked very striking against the black background. Congratulations to our two winners, Cindy Chadwick and Julie Neff.

Spring is here so dig into your stash to find some lovely sherbet-colored tone-on-tone prints and a tone-on-tone white to make one or more “Springtime Sherbets” blocks. This is about as easy as it gets…only squares and rectangles! It would make a great baby quilt if you’re so inclined (Community Quilt, perhaps?) or just a cheery spring quilt for someone special. The blocks are due at the May 3rd business meeting.

As always, links to the instructions for the Block of the Month are on the guild's website. If you have questions or need us to send you a paper copy, feel free to contact us.

FAIR SEASON IS COMING!

Now that your quilts are (almost) done for our show in June, it's time to get them entered in some local fairs. Last month, we told you about the Marin Fair entries due May 11th <www.marinfair.org>. Next up is the Sonoma Marin Fair in Petaluma and its entries are due May 16th <sonoma-marinfair.org> And our own Sonoma County Fair will have the guidebooks out and begin accepting entries May 1st with the deadline for entries in adult categories being June 16th (paper entries) and June 30th (online entries) <sonomacountyfair.com> . Let's show off our good work!

COMING TO OUR SHOW AND THE FAIR

Lincoln School's Quilt Club will be sharing their quilts from this year's theme of Stripes.

MARCH's speaker Kathi Carter Sweet

APRIL's STAR QUILTER was Carole Behlke who brought a full table's worth of quilts in a variety of styles.

LLINE AND DEB with their Lincoln School Quilt Club members told the stories of their first quilts and what the club means to them. One of the girls won 2 of the 7 raffle baskets too!

SALE!

The Fabric Sale was a huge success with many new people attending and BUYING - hence the rather decimated tables! The baskets were many and well stocked, the yarn and notions and books offered something for everyone and the WORKERS were full of stamina needed for all the income made!

MOONLIGHT QUILTERS OF SONOMA COUNTY - BUSINESS MEETING 4/5/17

President Katina Repp called the meeting to order at 7:02 p.m. and welcomed guests Chris and Janis from Diablo Valley Quilters with their opportunity quilt, six students from Deb Gomes' after school class at Lincoln Elementary School and their chaperones with the quilts they made that will be entered in our show, including Denise Breland, Jesus Parra, Mario Avalon, Marcia Seeley and Renata Seeley. Karen Bolan and Marilyn Bruce won the name tag drawing.

Secretary's report: On motion by Cindy Chadwick and second by Barb Splaine, minutes of the March 1 business meeting were approved. Treasurer's report: Cindy Chadwick reported that we are in the black with $5,837.34.Membership report: Marci VonFeldt reported that the guild now has 150 members.

President's report: Upcoming shows in our area:

April 1- May 3, Bay Quilts in Richmond, "Color Explosion"
April 7-8, Auburn, "Gems of the Foothills"
April 7-9, Lindsay, "The Best of the Valley"
April 7-9, Pacific Grove, "Quilts by the Bay", Monterey Peninsula Quilt Guild
April 21-June 4, San Jose Quilt Museum, "Quiltbeast"
April 22-23, Livermore, "Colors of the Vineyard", Amador Valley Quilters
April 22-23, Benicia, "Spring on the Straits", Carquinez Strait Stitchers
May 6, Bay Quilts, "On the Surface: Dyed, Painted and Printed"
May 6-7, Yolo County Fairgrounds, "Expressions froms the Heart"

Forgotten Felines has requested to be able to sell the cat cuddles to raise money for food and other expenses. There were no objections and Katina will let them know.

The guild received a thank you card from Margo Pitter, the winner of the award for "Best Use of Color and Design" at the Cloverdale Citrus Fair.

Guild elections are coming up, we need people to volunteer for the Nominating Committee.

Vice-President's Report:

UFO Challenge: Deana Abramowitz, Cecile Clabaugh, Dolores McCann, Norma Jean Edwards and Carole Behlke all completed their UFO challenge. If I have left your name out, please let me know. The VP Challenge (It's Not All Black and White) is due in August.

Committee and Activity Reports:

Opportunity Quilt: (Geri Cross and Dale Yamamura): Thank you to the many who volunteered at the Healdsburg Quilt and Doll Show. Our Opportunity Quilt won the second place prize of $75 in the juried section. The guild also received $165 for participating in the show. Our quilt is now hanging at Village Sewing Center.

Annual Fabric Sale: (Deb Gomes and Lline Woodall): We have a HUGE amount of fabric for the sale. Fabric will sell for $2.00 per pound. Doors open at 7:00 p.m. We still need people to help set up and work the cash register.

Medallions: Next round is due May 3.

Workshops: (Barbara Freiday) Our May speaker is Jennifer Sampou, a fabric and pattern designer. The workshop will be "Elephant and I" on May 20. Due to popular demand, Kathy Carter Sweet will be instructing us on Judy Neimeyer patterns on Saturday, August 19 at Village Sewing. Call Janet Clark if you are interested at 415-312-2140.

Library: (Cyndi Cunningham) We have a new book "Fabricadabra", ways to work with large fabrics. Our tool library has not seen enough action to continue with it. Cyndi asked members to retrieve items they had donated. The remainder will be sold.

Craft and Vendor Show: Thursday to Saturday, May 18-20 at the Santa Rosa Fairgrounds. We have been given free booth space to sell Opportunity Quilt tickets, along with the Santa Rosa and Petaluma guilds and their quilts. Please sign up for shifts with Barbara Splaine.

Quilt Show (Gina Stateler-Calhoun): Trina is still taking photos of quilts for your entries.

Quilt Show Publicity: (Barbara Splaine) We have fliers and postcards. Barbara has a list of places where the postcards and fliers can be placed. Please step up and take responsibility for one of these locations to deliver the items to.

Quilt Show Volunteers: (Dena Harding and Alys Hay) Please sign up to work at the show. New this year are vendor-specific volunteers and a volunteer for the Cat and Dog Cuddles program. To get into the show free, you must sign up for two shifts. You can sign up to volunteer via our website, thanks to Karen Derrick. Dena told us that the guild retreat was wonderful, we raised $260 for two charities: The East Bay Gay Men's Choir and the Ceres Project in Sonoma County.

Quilt Show Food: (Marilyn Lira) Please sign up to work in the food area.

Boutique: (Karla Eastham) The boutique has expanded, we can now hang more quilts. Anything handmade is appropriate, doesn't necessarily have to be sewing-related. 15% of your sales go to the guild. Alys will teach a zipper class at Village on April 29.

Kay Hawkins volunteered to head the committee for returning quilts when the show is over on Sunday.

Announcements: If you are interested in helping Habitat for Humanity with long arm quilting, contact Norma Jean Edwards.

Star Quilter: Carole Behlke. Carole is the first quilter in her family. She showed us many of her small quilts that she has taken along while traveling, and some large and beautiful red and green quilts.

Ways and Means Raffle: Winners of the raffles: Miriam Marlin, Ann Linville, Eleanor Daily, Barb Splaine, Joan Aquistapace, Jeanne Nelson.

Friendship Blocks: (Jeanne Nelson) Completed blocks were returned to Marlene Sullivan and Karen Bolan.

Sunshine: (Donna Huckaby) Winner of the April birthday drawing is Mary Flynn.

Fat Quarter Frenzy: (Lillian Wills and Donna Cambra) Winner of the farm animal fabrics is Helaine Campbell. Next month's fabrics will be sports-themed.

Hospitality: (Robin Dieter) Thank you all for your generosity. Fat quarter winner is Lillian Wills. We do not need any refreshments for the next meeting (fabric sale).

Block of the Month: (Kathy Leake and Linda Mason) Winners of the "Oklahoma Twister" blocks were Cindy Chadwick and Julie Neff. May's block is "Springtime Sherbets."

Community Quilts: Katina announced that the guild will be updating where we donate our community quilts to. If you have a suggestion, let Marilyn Lira or Katina know, whether it is to add or delete an organization. Please check with other guilds to avoid duplication of donations.

Show and Tell: Susan Blair, Jan Nilsen (winner of the fat quarter), Judy Buff, Marilyn Lira, Margaret Garretson and Sharon McCarty.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:50 p.m.

Respectfully submitted, Deana Abramowitz, secretary
