PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Happy New Year! I hope the holiday season was merry and bright for everyone! So bring on the new year! I hope that you have looked over the schedule of workshops for the rest of the guild year. We have some great ones coming up. Did you sign up for the UFO challenge? Start the year off with wrapping up an unfinished project - a quick mark in the completed column for the year! Whatever you decide to do, make sure you share with the guild.

Be sure to attend the meetings and read the newsletter. The guild has many opportunities to expand your creative horizons.

Do you have an idea for a project, program, or activity? Share it with us! The guild benefits from your participation and in return, you benefit by helping keep the guild alive. I guarantee that you will learn something new, make a new friend, and have fun while you are at it.

Now a few Thank Yous. Karin Beam for the fabulous holiday pot luck. Dena Harding and crew for the awesome gift basket drawings. Robin Dieter for making sure we have great hospitality. The table hosts for making each table unique and festive. The holiday potluck was a festive night full of fun and friendship with a dash of silliness.

See you at the next meeting!

Katina Repp
President

STAR QUILTER

I don't feel I warrant the title of "Star Quilter" and believe this activity should be renamed "Quilt Journeys" because we all are on our own quilt journey. My quilt journey started like many by learning to sew clothes while in 6th or 7th grade. I did make two quilts while in high school for each of my sibling's weddings but these were made with scraps and no knowledge about quilt making. I began making quilts with "new" fabric and a rotary cutter soon after college. I am continuously learning and being challenged by the limitless patterns, fabrics and techniques in this creative hobby. I joined MQSC to learn from others and hear about their quilt journeys. I thank you all for sharing your knowledge and expertise with me.

Trina Jahnsen

CAT & DOG CUDDLES

Kick off 2017 by stitching some of those orphan blocks and odd pieces of fabric into a cat or dog cuddle. Be creative. Try something you haven't tried before. The dogs and cats will love your creation, and you will have a little more room for some new fabric! Multiple layers of batting make it even more comfortable.

If you need some fabric or batting, we will have some at the table at the January business meeting. We have lots and lots of cut batting pieces just waiting to be stitched into a cuddle. We would love for you to take some home with you!

As a reminder, cat cuddles should be 17" x 25". Dog cuddles can be larger. We promise that no dog or cat will complain to you about your choice of fabrics, or the quality of your points, corners, or quilting.

Happy New Year to you and to all your furred, feathered, and scaled friends.

Julie Neff and Janske Silva, Cuddles Coordinators

PROGRAM NOTES

We are excited to have well-known quilting personality Rob Appell visit our guild in February! On February 15, 2017 he will present his trunk show called "Quilts from the Sea and Beyond" at our Program Meeting at 7pm. This trunk show features a collection of quilted seascapes and quilts from his own fabric lines. He is best known for his quilted seascapes, but has expanded from being a sewing machine technician into being a fabric designer, dynamic teacher, and currently enjoys celebrity status with Missouri Star Quilt Company with the Man Sewing Project.

Saturday, February 18, 2017 Rob will teach a class from 10-4 at the Village Sewing Center entitled "Making Friends With Your Quilting Machine." Rob will spend the day sharing his vast knowledge of the technical side of sewing machine service and operations. We will see machine quilting from a different perspective as Rob discusses ways to become one with our machine by exploring the machine itself, needles, thread, gadgets, and how to move forward to make machine quilting a positive and rewarding experience.

OPPORTUNITY QUILT

Tickets and postcards, with a photo of the quilt, are available at the Opportunity Quilt table at every Guild meeting. So, remember to bring your checkbook. Tickets are $1 each or 6 for $5. Contact Dale Yamamura and Geri Cross, co-marketing chairs, anytime. See a photo on our website!

TOOL LIBRARY

At the January 2017 Business Meeting The Tool Librarian will be offering three baskets of quilt templates with instructions. Pick up a library book and the tools to go with it to make your quilts great! Kerry Mertle

BASIC SKILLS

upcoming classes

BLOCK of the MONTH

For December's block, now due JANUARY 4th, we want to see what's on your bookshelf. The blocks should have a solid black background and finish at 12" tall, with the width in increments of 6". Unfinished is 12.5" tall with the width ½" larger than the finished width: 6.5", 12.5", 18.5", etc. You will receive one BOM drawing ticket for each 6" block segment! The blocks are due at the January 4th business meeting. A link to the instructions for the block is on the guild's website and the instructions include a link to a video. If you have questions or need us to send you a copy, feel free to contact us.

Kathy Leake (707) 738-4125

Linda Mason (707) 332-1311

Block of the Month Coordinators

WHY JOIN MQSC?

A gentle reminder that your membership entitles you to participate in the Basic Skills classes, workshops, monthly guild activities. If you do not renew your membership, you will not be allowed to attend the Basic Skills classes, workshops, or participate in the monthly guild activities. Additionally, you will not receive a membership card which provide you a 10% discount at Village Sewing Center and Beverly's. If you have not renewed your membership, now is the time to do it!

FRIENDSHIP BLOCKS

Let's really make 2017 a year of friendship by making a beautiful block for one of our Guild friends. Remember you can earn points for yourself or others. We'll be looking for you at our first January meeting. Let's do it!! Thanks.
Jeanne Nelson and Margaret Garretson

FAT QUARTER FRENZY

January's color choices for the frenzy are Red, White, Black - alone or two or more of those colors along with red or white.

HAPPY

YEAR!

Here's to a really good 2017 for all—with lots of whatever makes you happy. And lots of articles for the newsletter turned in (without reminders!) on or before the 15th of the month!

Moonlight Quilters of Sonoma County
Board Meeting December 12, 2016

Attendees: Katina Repp, Deana Abramowitz, Gina Stateler-Calhoun, Marci VonFeldt, Robin Dieter, Barbara Splaine, Cyndi Cunningham, Bambi Weinberg-Tuttle, Cindy Chadwick, Norma Jean Edwards.

President Katina Repp called the meeting to order at 7:03 pm and welcomed the board.

President's report: The Round Robin is scheduled for the January 18 program meeting. DJ Berger will demonstrate trapunto, Gina Stateler-Calhoun will present feather quilting, Katina will show how to make her luggage tag, Norma Jean will do 'checkerboard to diamonds' quilt block. We will check with Deb Gomes about possibly demonstrating a new tool of hers. Presenters should make 75 copies of their handout. If you do it at Piner Printing you can put it on our account.

Treasurer's report: (Cindy Chadwick) Our net income is $6,191.61. If we have more than $50,000 income within a three year time period, we will have to pay taxes.

Library: (Cyndi Cunningham) Cyndi has spent $170 of her budget so far. There is a list online of all the books in our library.

Ways and Means: (Bambi Weinberg-Tuttle) The holiday raffle made $925. Bambi will contact Deb Gomes and Lline Woodall to assess new fresh ideas for the Spring fundraiser. We have taken in $465 for the opportunity quilt so far.

Membership: (Marci VonFeldt) We still have many members who have not renewed. Those members will be dropped and will not be able to participate in guild activities (basic skills workshops, block of the month, library) will not receive the 10% guild discount at stores, and will not be able to sell their quilts at the show.

Hospitality: (Robin Dieter) Would table hostesses from the holiday party please return your tablecloths to Robin.

Newsletter: Deadline for articles is the 15th of the month.

Quilt Show: (Gina Stateler-Calhoun) The first quilt show meeting will be Tuesday, January 24. Gina brought up the question of possibly (in the future) moving our opportunity quilt drawing to occur at the quilt show to bring excitement to the show. We could bring the quilt to PIQF and the Sonoma County Fair to sell tickets.

Programs: Our last workshop was very successful. We can use the Fellowship Hall free, via Barb Splaine. The next workshop will be Rob Appell on February 18.

Basic Skills: (Gina Stateler-Calhoun) We have all of this year's classes scheduled: January will be Donna Poe's Jelly Roll Race at Village, April will have Audrey Giroux doing color, August will be Alys Hay with zippers.

Show and Tell: We need to come up with a smoother way to photograph the quilts as they are being presented.

Fat quarter frenzy: Interest in this activity seems to be waning. Should we change the format or give it a rest for a year?

Community Quilts: Marilyn Lira has a list of where everything is. Bag-a-long materials have been returned to Pat Meiswinkel.

Some thoughts from the president:

1. Future fundraising ideas: 24 hour quilt-a-thon to raise funds for a non-profit; quilting olympics in teams.
2. Should we be promoting our affiliates, perhaps by featuring each one in the newsletter or on the website?

The meeting was adjourned at 8:35 pm.

Respectfully submitted by Deana Abramowitz, Secretary
