President's Message

This is my last message to all of you in this forum. I am honored that you have entrusted me with the leadership of this stellar organization. We have experienced so much together in the last two years.

I am deeply grateful that so many of you continued your membership and participation in MQSC. Together we create community. Although we have not been able to host a Quilt Show of late, there are many highlights to recall.

First, you showed up for Zoom meetings. I tried to have a special surprise for each business meeting. We welcomed teachers from around the globe.

We honored our 40 years of existence with reflections by members from each decade. Thank you to Norma Jean Edwards, Karen Mansergh, Katina Repp, and Michelle Crosbie for sharing.

You continued to make Community Quilts as well as Cat and Dog Cuddles. I recall our major donation to the survivors of last year's fires in the Sierra communities.

Members shared their work as Quilters of the Month. I was moved by their motivations to quilt as well as by the diversity of their work. Especially memorable was Ruth Aquistapace who provided a history lesson of the guild along with samples of her work.

We found out that workshops on Zoom work out splendidly. How nice it has been to work in our home studios with all supplies close at hand. Kudos to the Round Robin teachers who figured out how to demo their projects on line.

We found ways to play and celebrate without potlucks. Thanks to the organizers of our Installation Celebration and Holiday Party. I enjoyed playing and laughing with all of you.

Now, I'll say goodbye and convey my best wishes to your incoming board and leaders. The future is in good hands.

Linda Lampson, President 2021-2022

VP Challenge 2021/2022 – Diversity!

Friendship Blocks

Margaret and I would like to thank you all for supporting us at Friendship Block. Starting in September Friendship Block will be led by Carole Dehlinger and Mary Slack. We know Carole and Mary will enjoy your support too.

There are some new blocks as well as a few older blocks available to make for our members. Be sure to visit Friendship Block soon to see what you'd like to make or to start a block for yourself.

Jeanne Nelson and Margaret Garretson
Friendship Block Coordinators
2021/22

Basic Skills

Our last Basic Skills class in August lived up to its name: Triple Treat!! Everyone was having such a great time sewing and socializing that none of us took photos. Dena shared so many wonderful tips. I left for a retreat the next day and immediately used almost all of them. We passed out 15 kits that will soon be turned into great community quilts. Everyone is now a fan of Donna Robertson's "Three One Yard Quilt" books.

Special thanks to all the talented teachers who taught our classes this year: Dena Harding, Ann Nolen and Nancy Samples. Thanks to Graton Community Center who donated the use of their wonderful facility.

Pam Brown
Basic Skills Coordinator 2021/22

Programs

Jane Haworth will be joining us via Zoom for the September 21st Program Meeting discussing her "Journey as a Quilt Artist". She will begin with a short photo tour of Britain and her early, varied career in the textile file and will take us through the trials of teaching herself to quilt, and how she started making unique, raw edge fabric collage quilts. She will also talk about what she has learned from running an Etsy shop and her memory quilt business, along with details of her trip to the International Quilt Festival Dubai.

On September 24th Jane will lead a collage workshop "Sun Lit Sunflowers". Using a variety of fabrics including scraps we will fussy cut and trace shapes and then glue them onto the design before free motion quilting. The quilt can either be finished as a 15" hanging using a binding or stretched onto a 12" artist's canvas.

Workshop cost is $50 and will include the pattern, and fabric kits will also be available from Jane. Currently this is scheduled to be an in-person workshop, although a site has not yet been selected and the workshop could possibly be done via Zoom. If you would like to register for this class send an email to mqscprograms@gmail.com to be added to the list and bring your payment to the meeting on September 7th. There will NOT be online registration or payment for the workshop.

Sarah Goer will be our speaker in October, with a Zoom presentation at the Program Meeting on September 21st and in-person class on Saturday, October 22nd. Her topic for the program meeting is on color, while the workshop will be Building an Improv Toolbox. In this fast-paced workshop, Sarah will teach a wide variety of improvisational piecing techniques. Discover how fun and easy it is to create the improv elements for use in your existing quilt projects, or as the start of a new project. Each prompt will be introduced and demonstrated, then time will be allowed for making one or more units with each technique.

November will bring Karen Bolan as our guest speaker and workshop instructor, where you will have a chance to design your own modern quilt.

I've enjoyed bringing you a wide variety of programs and workshops for the past year and a half, and look forward to what your new program chair Mary Flynn will be bringing in the next few months.

Membership Committee

Happy New Membership Year, everyone! I am practicing making sure that my socks match, as well as my shoes, before I leave the house - is anyone else having trouble getting back into a more normal social life?

September represents so many new starts - school, harvest, fall....considering some fall-themed quilts? Have you started a Halloween quilt or wall hanging? Our September meeting will be a great time to bring your latest creation to share at show-and-tell, or to gather inspiration from other quilters.

The new board will be installed at our September 7 meeting, and there will be desserts! As your new Membership Committee Chair, I will be working hard to put names and faces together and getting to know everyone. Please be sure to stop by the Membership/Check-in table to say hi, pay the 2022-23 dues by check or credit card - and tell me if you saw this article in the newsletter - you will win a fat quarter from us!

Saying good-bye to summer is challenging - but after two years of being home more than we've ever expected to be, the coming months will be a treat! See you September 7!

A Message from our VP and soon to be President!

Hello Quilting friends! This is the soon-to-be president! I am looking forward to joining the MQSC leadership team. I love our guild and I love quilting so this should be fun! I heard a podcast yesterday on why women are feeling more burn-out than men from the pandemic and having a tougher time bouncing back. It's true. I feel it even in our guild! 😞 But, we're a team, right? We can work together and make this a year to focus on feeling better. A year of healing. One way to start this is by giving. Make a charity quilt, make some hot pads for your neighbors. Quilting can be your Prozac! Another thing is to let others care about you. If someone asks how you are doing, be honest. Chances are you have a lot more in common than you think. Collaborate. Join a mini group or start one. Notice the first time you laugh out loud! It will happen.

MQSC Business Meeting
In Person and Via Zoom
07-20-22

Meeting called to order: 7:03PM

President's announcements

Before installation on Sept 1 current board and committee members who will not be continuing in their position should update the binder for their position

- Include the email and password for your position
- Arrange a meeting with your successor

Other announcements

- Deb Gomes and Denise Ragozzino are putting together baskets for our holiday party. If you won a basket at the fabric sale and don't need it you can donate it back to Deb.

Vice President's report – Denise Ragozzino

- VP challenge is in a month. The topic is Diversity, use the color purple and include a moon.

Treasurer's report – Michelle Crosbie

- We have about $8,600 in CD account. Net income is $4475.96 from boutique at fabric sale.
- Let Michelle know if you missed a reimbursement.

Membership report – Kathy Vedder and Miriam Marlin

- Two new members have joined, Wendy Wood and Linda Ralleca.

Committee/Activity Reports

Programs/Workshops – Teresa Lewis

- Our August meeting will be with Jeanette Walton in person for a trunk show.
- Her workshop has been canceled.
- Any person who wants to attend can join with the SR Quilt Guild on Friday the 19th at the Luther Burbank Garden Center; you can pay at the door.

Fund Raising – Gina Statler-Calhoun

- Fabric Sale and Boutique- final report

- The sale was a success. Fabric sales came to $3,981.64, raffle was $1,580.00 with most people buying $20 worth of tickets. Boutique was $1,160 net and $4,550 gross.
- Some feedback is, if we do this again we need to notify people sooner. We didn't get the message out to everyone that needed it. Net income was $4,475.96, that is after all expenses. $6575 was total income.
- Thanks to all the people who came out and volunteered.

Quilt Show at the Steele Lane Community Center

- SR Parks and Recreation invited us to do a 10-week quilt show at the Steele Lane Center. We will display our and some of our other products that members have created. Let Gina Stateler-Calhoun know if you want to participate.

Opportunity Quilt marketing

- We will be marketing our opportunity quilt at the Sonoma County Fair and selling tickets. Last year we priced the tickets at $5 = 1, $20 = 5 or $50 = 100 tickets.
- Would like to know what people thought about doing it this way again? The same number of people bought the $50 as bought the $20. The majority of the attendees agreed this was okay to continue, Gina will work on getting the tickets made.
- Additional marketing needed, ideally taking the quilt to other venues, other guilds, and all the coordination that goes with it. Open positions are appointed by the Board.

Basic Skills – Pam Brown

- Saturday August 13 with Dena Harding. She will be working on 3-yard quilts based on the Fabric Café books. You can get supplies from Dena the day of or you can pick up your kit from Dena's house.
  - Dena will have several patterns to choose from. Supply list will be sent out via email, sign-up sheet is here tonight or email Pam Brown. The 3 yards does not include the backing. You can donate your quilt if you use your own fabric. If you use one of the kits then it needs to go back to community quilts.
  - Class will be held at the Graton Community Center. Bring your own lunch, no microwave or refrigerator available. It is a good idea to bring a small extra lamp if you have one and a cushion to sit on.
- Quilt parade and donation to charities will be held in October this year.

Medallions – Trina Jahnsen, Dale Yamamura

- Should be turned in by August

- Starts for the new year will be sent out via email blast by Katina.

Quilt Show 2023 – open discussion

For 3 years we have not had a quilt show. Should we continue to have a quilt show?

President Lampson opened the floor for any discussion.

Ideas brought up:

- Don't serve food
- Have a smaller show
- Need an ad hoc group to explore this topic.
  - In the past the quilt show is not designed to be a fund raiser; it is designed to break even.
- If you include a boutique in the fabric sale then that part of the quilt show is covered.
- Concern expressed that we do not have the volunteer capacity to pull off the show
- If we do a smaller show we may lose the vendors who help us to cover our expenses
- For the show chair and others it is a 6–12-month commitment.
- Show brings in all kinds of people that are not part of the guild. Should we have the show to bring in new members?
- Bi laws says that the quilt show is meant to educate the public, one of our purposes stated in our non-profit application
- We provide a lot of education to our members but not as much to the general public
- The Steele Lane event is an outreach event and it is at a time of our new year so the timing is good.
- There are other events that we could be part of that allow us to educate the public, we can conduct this along with other guilds.
- We should get feedback from other guilds about current shows
- Smaller and every other year is a good idea
- Two biggest expenses are the rental of polls, drapes, and the building
- We need to look at a different time, date change, because of the change in the school year.
- If we only do a fabric sale we can do some demonstrations and hang more quilts
- Moving forward we increase our pool of volunteers by making sure people from other guilds are volunteering.
- Our volunteers are aging and they don't want to get on the ladders and do the physical labor.
- Only way to sell quilts or use the boutique is to be a member of our guild, so if someone from another guild wants to sell they are not allowed.

- If we try to do this as a tri guild idea it would need to be very different.
- Focus on doing the fabric sale is where we should use our resources. Add a few elements to the Fabric Sale, such as education, demonstrations, then revisit bringing back the quilt show when we have increased membership or people willing to take on leadership positions.
- If we include other guilds then the profits would need to be split.
- For the Fabric sale consider putting the Boutique on the stage and consider the impact on our local quilt shops
